

Privacy Policy

I take the privacy of the users of my website very seriously and am committed to protecting the information that users provide to me in connection with the use of the website. Furthermore, I undertake to protect and use your data in accordance with applicable law.

This Privacy Policy explains the practices regarding the collection, use, and disclosure of your information through the use of the digital assets (the "Services") when you access the Services through your devices.

Please read the Privacy Policy carefully and ensure that you fully understand the practices regarding your information before using my services. If you have read, fully understood, and do not agree with our practices, you must stop using our digital assets and services. By using our services, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy. Continued use of the Services constitutes your acceptance of this Privacy Policy and any changes thereto.

In this Privacy Policy, you will learn:

- How data is collected
 - What data is collected
 - Why this data is collected

What data is collected?

Category: Always

Below is an overview of the data that can be collected:

- De-identified and non-identifiable information that you provide during the registration process or that is collected through the use of our Services ("Non-Personal Information"). Non-personal information does not allow conclusions to be drawn about who collected it. Non-personal information that we collect consists primarily of technical and aggregated usage information.
 - Individually identifiable information, i.e. any information that identifies you or could be reasonably identified ("Personal Information"). The personal information collected through the news broadcast may include information requested to respond to, such as names, email addresses, addresses, and telephone numbers, (in the background, but not collected by me, as with any action on the Internet, IP addresses and more.)

How is data collected?

Category: Always

The following are the main methods used to collect data:

- I collect data that you provide to me, for example, when you contact me directly through a communication channel (e.g. an email with a comment or feedback).
 - I may collect information from third-party sources as described below.
 - I may collect information that you provide when you send a message through a third party such as Facebook or Google.

Why is this data collected?

Category: Always

Your data may be used for the following purposes:

- to respond to your message, feedback, requests and requests, and to offer assistance;
- for other internal, statistical and research purposes (how many inquiries do I receive directly via the homepage, in which case the collection is anonymous)

To whom could this data be shared in the event of an emergency?

Category: Always

Your information may also be disclosed in the following circumstances: (i) to investigate, detect, prevent, or take action against unlawful activity or other wrongdoing; (ii) to establish or exercise our rights of defense; (iii) to protect our rights, property, or personal safety, as well as the safety of our users or the public;
